

Lowell “Buddy” Mason

website: www.lowellmason.com

The past month has been plagued by van issues. After extensive work, the structural damage to the fram, has been repaired. Then work had to be done to the ramp. Other mechanical problems have arisen and most have been taken care of. Still having problems with the transmission and couple troubling sounds when turning.

Fortunately, the health of Lowell and Judy has been good as of late.

They could use some encouragement and a reminder of how God has worked mightily through them.
