The POINT!

February 2022

Paul St. Louis, Minister

Number 4

but to the contrary calls for believers to be United (John 17). Towards that end; Pine Run is involved in:

- National Day of Prayer
- Food Distribution
- Clio Christmas Celebration
- Working with other believers in community
- Encouraging workers for Christ around the world through Social Media.

To the church in Philadelphia, Jesus said, "I know your deeds. See, I have placed before you an open door that no one can shut. I know that you have little strength, yet you have kept my word and have not denied my name." (Revelation 3).

I think it is clear. By obeying Jesus' commands, we continue on, to the amazement of most who become aware of our situation. It's obviously not by "our abilities" and "resources" but rather it is obvious that only GOD could accomplish what we have experienced. Let's remain focused and faithful to Him!

Food Distributions

Training is again completed for the Food Bank, and we continue to work with Trinity Assembly of God and the Burley family (Phil grew up at Pine Run). Volunteers are always welcome and are requested to show up around 8 am.

People ask: Why do all that you do? Why not focus just on Pine Run? What are you really accomplishing?

These can seem legitimate questions to outsiders. There's a lot they may not realize about the ministry here.

Jesus is the Head of the Church (Colossians 1). Jesus has called us to teach others, disciple, and meet needs (Matthew 25; Matthew 28).

At Pine Run we teach through:

- Daily Bible Reading
- Bible School
- Worship
- Bible Studies
- Website
- Social Media
- One on one in the community
- Among Civic Leaders

At Pine Run we disciples through:

- Bible School
- Worship
- Bible Studies
- Website
- Social Media
- One on one by example, encouragement, etc.

At Pine Run we meet needs through:

- Food Distribution
- Support of Clio Human Services Fund
- Support of Missions
- Special needs as they arise
- Individually

Jesus does not teach us to care "only about our own congregation",
