For Father's Day, Duke Mason (Lowell and Judy's son) wrote & sang this song: AMEN (Dad's Song)

More than 70 years he sang about the Lord,

Travelin' near and far, to share the good news with the world,

Whether close to home or a thousand miles away,

Even when the road ahead wasn't easy, he'd still bow his head and pray. He'd say

"Thank you, Lord for the blessings of my life

Thank you for your love, my children and my wife

Guide me Lord, in all I say and do,

And may all glory, praise and honor go to you. Amen"

Now his hair has turned from black to gray

It's hard to put a face with a name, But with all that's been forgotten, he still bows his head and prays, he says.

"Thank you, Lord for the blessings of my life

Thank you for your love, my children and my wife

Guide me Lord, in all I say and do,

And may all glory, praise and honor go to you. Amen"

Now I'm travellin and I'm singin' just like he did

I smile when people say, "You look just like your dad, when he was a kid"

And I hear his voice, when I bow my head to pray,

I'm so thankful for what he taught me when I heard the words he'd say,
"Thank you, Lord for the blessings of my life

Thank you for your love, my children and my wife

Guide me Lord, in all I say and do,

And may all glory, praise and honor go to you. Amen"

This is what God intended—a personal relationship that is passed on to others!

David & Dawn (Berry) Degler A Christian Ministry in the National Parks

ACMNP is doing a fundraiser to help Flooding Relief and Support for "Yellowstone National Park". Recent floods has caused the park to be closed with various roads being washed out, along with significant infrastructure (including structures, water lines and even housing). Their goal is to raise $5,000 and they have raised over $3600. This is another way they share God's love with the people in our National Parks!
