

Lowell “Buddy” Mason

website:

www.lowellmason.com

Lowell has adapted greatly through the years. When he started in Gospel Music ministry 72 years ago, he would travel, do concerts and sing on a Christian radio station. He expanded his travels to the surrounding states and then across the country. This was followed with being part of Revivals in other countries. Lowell realized he could only do so much, so he began raising money to send Bibles to Russia. He would later start a ministry to meet the physical needs of people in storm distressed areas of our country; all while maintaining the other ministries.

Today, his health prohibits him from travelling for concerts and revivals. He has adapted by using the internet and social media to reach out and build up the body of Christ; while continuing to oversee the other ministries.

Its’ difficult to accept we cant do some of the things we’ve “always done”; but commendable when we realize that there are other ways we can now contribute and serve.

The work is progressing to getting ready for another travel season in our National Parks. Laborers have been recruited and trained. Now it is further preparation to get people in place and ready to lead Bible Studies and Worship services at our National Parks.
