Mission of the Month:

Lowell Mason

In September, when the preacher had a health issue arise, we were reminded of the special relationship we have with Lowell. He reached out on Facebook with encouragement.

The Apostle Paul spoke to the church at Philippi about the special relationship that they had with him. He stated that it was "good of you to share in my troubles." He had been there for him and vice versa. So it has been with our relationship with Lowell.

We have financially and prayerfully supported his ministry. We forward his devotions on our Facebook site. When he has heard of problems with Flint water, troubled youth, loss of Loretta Malin, and the preacher's health he has reached out to this congregation.

It is this relationship that continues to bring us together in the midst of tragedy (Hurricane Florence), knowing we can rely on him to see that our donations get to the spot where they can be used effectively for Jesus Christ, meeting needs!

Messiah Lutheran
Women's Retreat
Oct. 20th

Many have dealt with children who were raised in the church and presently do not attend anywhere. This burden that parents share can seem hopeless at times.

Saturday, October 20th, at father and daughter will be speaking at the Messiah Lutheran (Clio) Women's Retreat. They have experienced not only the departure of the daughter, but her return to the faith. They will be sharing their testimony along with the lessons that they learned along the way.

The past several months have seen the absence of many precious souls that mean so much to us. We do our best to keep informed on how we can minister to them, pray and encourage, but they are still missed!

Our young people have moved into places on their own and getting involved with their lives. We pray that they will either return here, or find another place where they can continue to grow.

One of our Seniors has had to move in with their daughter.

Couple of Seniors have been away for the summer.

Some have had health issues that have kept them away.

Thankful for all that we hear from and show their support!

All remain in our prayers and are part of our family. In the meantime, we truly relish those who have been stepping up and remaining faithful! We praise God for how He continues to work through them and enables us to be an example to others of reliance upon God and what HE can do!

Pray for one another that we remain committed to the task of being the light in this community for Jesus!
