Judy, who runs the missions that Lowell and she had started, is not just a “missionary” but she is “family” here at Pine Run. This sister, through living with Buddy through the years, praying daily for Pine Run and involvement with ministry has a special place in our hearts. Her loss of her husband and daughter, strengthens the bond as she relates to people in our congregation who have lost their child and/or spouse. Together we understand the challenges of facing each new day and moving forward.

David & Dawn (Berry) Degler A Christian Ministry in the National Parks A Testimony...

I came to Yellowstone as a non-believer the summer of 1999. My best friend and I had been hired to work at opposite ends of the park. So, I was assigned roommates & suite-mates I’d never met before. God had plans for me that summer I could’ve never expected. I was placed in a 6-person suite with all 5 women on the ACMNP staff for Grant Pine Run Church of Christ

Village that summer. Due to past negative experiences, I was initially uninterested in pursuing Christianity. However, I did become friends with all of the sweet women in our suite.

Midway through the summer, tragedy struck when one of the women fell 80 feet into shallow water while hiking at Firehole Canyon. She was life-flighted to a hospital in Idaho, where she spent the next 6 weeks. The group of us took turns visiting her on our off days. I noticed a peace and trust the ACMNP staffers had regarding God’s power to heal and love us all. Miraculously, our friend walked out of the hospital 6 weeks later with no permanent damage! During those long car rides to visit our friend, the ACMNP’ers shared their faith, the gospel and a Christ-like love with me. By the end of the summer, I began to sing in the ACMNP services in place of our friend. In July of 1999, I committed my life to Christ...

I am now married, with 2 teenage boys. We live in Roswell, GA. We enjoy attending church and I have enjoyed many years in a women’s Bible study there. This changed the trajectory of my life as I am a believer because of my experience with ACMNP staffers the summer before I served on the staff.

We continue to get thanks from our contacts around the world for the daily devotions that we send out. It not only is an encouragement to them, but several will use them for lessons that they share in their country.
